

PAYING ATTENTION

Paying attention means remaining informed about public and political affairs.

What does Paying Attention look like?

- Discussing politics with friends and family
- Judging the accuracy of news
- Following politics on social media
- Reading or watching the news
- Gaining knowledge of political processes