Nina Gohel

Nina Gohel is an active & driven undergraduate from Mount Laurel, New Jersey. Pursuant of her undergraduate degree, she is an honors student double majoring in Political Science and Planning & Public Policy with minors in Economics, Philosophy, and PPE. This summer, Nina will participate in the International Leadership Foundation's highly selective Civic Fellow program, in coordination with her internship in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Office of General Counsel. Within her capacity, Nina is most looking forward to furthering ILF's mission to promote civic awareness, involvement, and effectiveness of AAPI communities, while developing and implementing an anti-racism and workplace equity plan for the EPA.
