

Identifying Volunteering Opportunities: Brainstorming Activity

Identify some problems occurring in your community (locally) or in other places in the country & world (nationally, internationally).

Example: Access to clean drinking water.

#1:

#2:

#3:

#4:

#5:

Think about your past experiences in school & beyond. Try to come up with a list of key skills you possess that might transfer well to a volunteer opportunity!

Example: I am a good team-player!

#1:

#2:

#3:

#4:

Identifying Volunteering Opportunities: Brainstorming Activity

Keeping your skills in mind, research volunteer opportunities tackling the problems you are interested in. For additional support with this activity, use the Identifying Volunteering Opportunities: Guide.

#1 (School-Club):

#2 (Local Community):

#3 (State):

#4 (National):

#5 (International):