

Election Calendar

Voting is one of the simplest ways to have a say in politics and make your voice heard. But what if you're not old enough to vote? The most important thing you can do is talk to the eligible voters in your life about your needs. All elections are important, from presidential elections to local referendums. Staying on top of dates and deadlines for many elections doesn't have to be overwhelming, but you can help the voters in your life by finding out and writing down the most important dates for them below.

Election timelines and calendars are often posted to the state Division of Elections or Secretary of State's website. Local information can be found on your town or city's website. <https://www.state.nj.us/state/elections/election-chronological-timelines.shtml>
