RU READY RUTGERS

CENTER FOR YOUTH POLITICAL PARTICIPATION

Writing a Letter to an Elected Official

Paragraph 1: Opening Statement
State your purpose. Who are you and what issue are you writing about?
Paragraphs 2 & 3: Support Your Position Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and personal or local stories.
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and
Clearly express your position on the issue. Include reputable facts and

RU READY RUTGERS

CENTER FOR YOUTH POLITICAL PARTICIPATION

Writing a Letter to an Elected Official

Paragraphs 2 & 3: Support Your Position
Paragraph 4: Make an Ask State your specific request for the official. Identify any relevant pieces of legislation.

